It seems to us that we heard somebody ing a "dark horse" in the Ohio Senatorial contest. Did the Hon. David Wagner go back on his colleague, and utterly forget to cast a scattering vote for him?

THE P. W. & Ky. people had a meeting in Pittsburgh the other day and gave the contractors notice that they meant busidetermining to have the road speedily completed, and that if they did not hurry up faster they would put more force on the track at their expense. This notice has probably quickened their pace, and we are likely to see the engine at the depot here in the next ten days at the

The Courier can hardly have failed to notice that very many of the failures alluded to have carried with them their own explanation and moral. Real es tate has had something to do in some o not been the procuring cause in many of them. Speculative transactions in real estate are not legitimate for men engage in active business, nor are loans on real estate a proper basis for bank business The National banks are prohibited fro leasing on such security, and the present depression has shown the wisdom of the prohibition.

Very many, if not most, of the failure occurring are attributable to "irregularities" of one kind and another, and rregularity is a mild term to apply to a large number of them. Downright fraud

The aim of such papers as the Courier is to show that Sherman's policy is crushing the business men of the country under a law of Congress, and no man car say that the present depression is not the natural result of the panic irrespective of that law. It was not enacted until THE Pitteburgh Munufacturer still speaks 1875, and the decline in prices had gone of the iron market as dull and lifeless, on up to that time just as it has gone but says that the feeling in the trade is since, and just as it went on in the memone of hopefulness. If it wasn't for hope orable panic of 1837 until bottom was fever, as long as they have anything to feed on hope for one more season. It's ceeding the panic of 1837 were among its very worst years, and from all appear ances our experience is simply history repeating itself.

CONGRESSIONAL.

WASHINGTON, January 11th.
The Speaker laid before the House see eral executive documents. Referred.
On motion of Mr. Bragg, leave was given the Military Committee to have the testimony taken by it printed, and to report at any time.
The following bills were introduced and referred:

By Mr. Price: To promote deposits of Savings banks and the refunding of the National debt.

Mr. Lapp: To give constru ion to the act for the resumption of specie payment; also authorizing the Sec-lary of the Treasury to issue coupon bonds of the denomination of $25, $50 and $100 for investment of Saving banks.

Mr. Hale made the point of order that the business which had occupied the House yesterday should come up to-day as unfinished business. The Speaker overruled the point, as to-day was private bill day. Mr. Hale then raised the question of consideration and the House voted to set aside private business, and to resume the consideration of the unfinished business of yesterday.

Mr. Hale moved the previous question on substitute reported yesterday from the Committee of the Whole, which is to effect that Committees desiring to make investigations, may at any time apply to the House for leave to send for persons and papers, but not requiring them to present a statement of charges. The previous question was not seconded. 109 to Government saving scentificates.

A bill was introduced in the House by Mr. Price to promote the deposit of savings and the refunding of the National debt. It authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to issue certificates of deposit of United States, of the denomination of $310, $20, $50 and $100 each, which certificates shall bear interest at the rate of 3-65 per cent., the certificates thus issued to be deposited in such amounts as the Secretary of the Treasury may direct, with any designated depository of the United States, or any post master of a postal money order office of the United States, or condition that all such certificates so deposited be paid for by such designated depository, or the time of making the deposit in oni or its equivalent on the return of such certificates or any part thereof to the Secretary of the Treasury, and that the certificate issued as foresaid be redeemed only in United States fore per cent bonds, and the holder thereof shall be authorized to receive from the Secretary of the United States, bonds bearing interest at the rate of four per cent per annum when presented at the United States Treasury, or any designated depository, in sums of ten dollars or any multiple thereof, the said bonds being payable, principal and interest, in coin of the standard of July 4, 1870. The bill further provides that all the National

The bill also expressly prohibits the Secretary of the Treasury from destroying the said notes, so as to reduce their total amount below $350, 000,000, it being declared to be the inten of the bill to provide for the continuance of that amount as part of the circulating CABINET CONSULTATION.

CABINET CONSULTATION.

The Cabinet was in session nearly two hours, with all the members present except the Secretary of the Navy. Matters of routine importance only are said to have been under consideration, though after the other members departed Secretary Evarts remained in consultation with the President upon the subject of appointments of Assistant Commissioners to the Paris Exhibition, the number of applications for which is by no means decreasing, while there seems to be a corresponding difficulty of making selections.

The Post adds: From all we can learn they are not in as good condition, in several respects, as they were thought to be when his suspension was first announced. John F. Henry was the Republican candidate for Mayor of Brooklyn in the November elections.

didate for Mayor of Brooklyn in the November elections.

Mr. Henry says his firm had a large amount of paper in Danning's hands, which had been sent hack to them, and it was impossible to meet at so short a notice, Mr. Henry showed some checks which he had taken up this morning, among which was one for $5,000 and said it was very hard to be called upon so suddenly to pay such amounts. Dunning had promised to furnish them with $10,000 this morning, instead of which they would have to meet all the paper they had on the market. Mr. Henry could ontay what was his exact position till a meeting of his creditors had been called and his books examined.

H. R. and A. M. Whitemore, partners of H. M. Cutter, cotton broker, who were reported fleeing pesterday, are now amounced missing. The bookkeeper of the firm has not seen any of the members since yesterday morning. He thinks the total amount involved in their operations will be $50,000.

total amount involved in their operations will be $50,000.

Mr. Henry this afternoon said his firm had considerable of Duning's paper and he in turn held paper of other drug firms indebted to them, and it naturally follows that when he suspended they were unable to realize anything from him, and he was under the impression that Duning's creditors would not realize more than 50 cents on the dollar. This of course would affect his house. He hoped for the best and was of the opinion that the firm's affairs would not be placed in the hands of a receiver.

H. Hollister, a prominent member of the Stock Exchange, has suspended. Liabilities estimated at $175,000. A settlement is likely to be made at 50 cents on the dollar.
